

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Andreas Grundei

Dr. Andreas Grundei (born in 1956) studied law at Vienna University and also completed the first part of national economy studies.

In 1982 he was awarded his doctor's degree. During his studies, he served as an officer of the Austrian army and then chose to become an attorney.

Since 1987 he has been a registered attorney at law and partner in the law firm

Zandl:Grundei, further, he has been working as a trained mediator since 2001.

His fields of specialization are:

- individual labor law, collective labor law
- social security law (benefit disputes and administrative proceedings as well as organizational law)
- law of insurance contracts (coverage problems, recourse, liability law)
- individual law and law of association for professional sports

Completed and ongoing projects:

- regular consulting relating to questions of labor law offered to enterprises doing business in various branches (in particular, also field organizations)
- litigation consulting, assistance and representation in the course of litigation in cases of staff cuts and reductions in social benefits (in particular, company pensions)
- representation of debtors with reference to labor law in insolvency proceedings of newspaper publishing companies
- consulting and representation of management executives and holders of official functions
- consulting and representation in disputes arising from the liability of legal persons in private and public law for wrongful acts or negligence on the part of their officers
- liability for medical and legal malpractice
- consulting and representation of insurance companies, recourse claims arising from the exclusion of liability and breach of warranty during the settlement of damage claims
- expert opinions
- consulting and representation in disputes between insured persons and social security institutions in questions of compulsory insurance, in recourse claims filed following payment of benefits, in disputes on benefits provided for according to social security law
- consulting and representation of professional sports associations
- constitution and supervision of arbitration tribunals
- preparation of government bills
- holding of seminars for trainee attorneys within the framework of the Legal Academy, since 1992 lecturer, author

Publications:

Autor in Kuras (Hrsg), PPL Handbuch Arbeitsrecht, Manz

Autor in Karollus/Achatz/Jabornegg (Hrsg), Aktuelle Rechtsfragen des Fußballsports III, Linde

Mitherausgeber von Grundei/Karollus, Aktuelle Rechtsfragen des Fußballsports IV, Linde

Mitherausgeber von Grundei/Karollus, Berufssportrecht I+II+III+IV+V Sramek

Autor in team businessmediation (Hrsg), Konfliktmanagement, Linde